

Maroon 5 make the Bay City Rollers look like Black Sabbath and dozens of the communists I will have to fuck for a whole bean grind or at least an undying crush on a closet cardigan bad and fierce over April Fool's impassioned thrashings in orfici posse expeditions discover everything I ever wanted to know about a fundamental stoicism where we suck up the beatings and surprised by the lack of swan formations in our mirrors of Tsunami porn and disassociation from the fact of only us being our own media with turds on our faces when we feel it's a good day like so many tombstone dorks pushing fifty pounds of straw asbestos into the icebox of my body so I can become the new Bob on the new Twin Peaks and show these small press SOB's a real Red Room where Zionist Pigs lunch with anti-semite scum and this whole concept is too dangerous for you namely: you must repent for blaming the Fred Durst thing on Rage Against the Machine or John Boehner on Abe Lincoln; as it is there are too many aliens coming down on this side of the Bak'tun cycle advocating free nicotine and ice cream for the godless scum who dare to sport clear windows on their white vans.
